ROBERT COFFEY ENDS LIFE BY HANGING

Body Found Today Hanging To Tree Near Accotink Creek

$73 IN POCKETS OF MAN

Was Employed as Carpenter at Camp Humphreys— Thought to Have Hanged Self Sunday

The body of a man believed to be Robert Coffey, forty-one years old, of 15 Overlook Road, Summit, N. J., was found hanging from a tree this morning near Accotink Creek, in the vicinity of Camp Humphreys, about seven miles south of Alexandria.

The discovery of the body was made by a number of men en route to Acctink Creek. Justice Troth, of Fairfax county was summoned and he held a coroner's jury and gave a verdict of suicide by hanging.

The dead man, according to reports from Fairfax county, had been employed for several months past a carpenter at Camp Humphreys. In his pockets was found $73 and also an identification card bearing the name of Robert Coffey directing that in case of accident Thomas Coffey, of 15 Overlook Road, Summit, N. J., be notified.

The body was turned over to Undertakers William Demaine and Son and moved to their mortuary chapel and a telegram was sent by Windsor Demaine to the foregoing address.

No reason could be assigned by anyone in Fairfax county for the suicide. Whether or not Coffey is a married man could not be learned this morning.

According to reports Coffey was last seen talking to a man in the vicinity of where his body was found hanging Sunday morning.

Rope used by Coffey for hanging himself was taken from a skiff in Accotink Creek it was stated by the authorities of Fairfax county. The body was frozen and was in a good state of preservation. The authorities are of the opinion that Coffey probably hanged himself Sunday.

Since the above was written Undertaker Demaine received a telegram from Thomas Coffey, Summit, N. J., brother of the dead man, directing that the body be held until he arrives. He is expected here tonight to identify the body and take it back to New Jersey for burial.

Another Holdup

Guy Nash Victim of Two Negro Highwaymen Early Last Night

Guy Nash, who lives on Duke street extended, was held up and robbed at the point of a pistol last night about 6 o'clock while enroute to his home. The highwaymen, described as negroes, obtained $2 and a gold watch.

The highwaymen commanded him to halt and pulled a pistol in his face and he endeavored to wrench the pistol from the man holding it and had his hand slightly cut in the scuffle.

News of the holdup soon spread in the neighborhood and a small sized posse was formed and search made for the highwaymen.

A colored man, who claims Richmond as his home, was found walking along the railroad track, bareheaded, by some of the men. He was taken in custody and brought to police headquarters The man says that he dropped his hat while coming to Alexandria on a Richmond train about 8 o'clock last night and was in search of it when he was taken in custody. The police say they do not think he is the man wanted as he does not resemble the men wanted for the several robbers that have occurred here during the past 72 hours.

LEYGUES MINISTRY IS OVERTHROWN

President Millerand Fears Poincare Owing to Situation

AT PARTING OF WAYS

be Compromise—Millerand to Fully Be Compromise Millerand to Fully Outline Situation.

Paris, Jan. 13.—Armies again may march in Europe, if, as seems probable last night, Raymond Poincare is asked to form a new National Cabinet to replace the Ministry of Georges Leygues, which was overthrown yesterday afternoon, when the chamber of Deputies refused a vote of confidence by 463 to 125. This was the largest vote ever cast against a French Ministry.

President Millerand, it is reprted last night, will do everything possible to avoid summoning Poincare to the Premiership in view of the critical situation and the former President's strong stand on the problem confronting France. There is a strong sentiment, however,, in favor of Poincare. He stands for no compromise with Germany and wants to get back to the treaty of Versailles instead of what he considers wasting time with arrangements intended to conciliate the Germans, but which the Germans resist.

France now stands at the parting of the ways. Unuless Millerand insists on no more compromises by the ministry before abandoning his hope in the conciliatory machinery now operating at Brussels and elsewhere he must call Poincare to the national leadership. France wants a strong man to conduct her case at the forth coming Paris conference. The entire country and the Chamber unanimously would select Poincare at this critical time but for one fact. It is feared in many quarters that Poincare's uncompromising attitude would cause trouble between France and her allies. England already has shown that her friendship has cooled since the war.

Millerand however, may not be able to resist the growing sentiment in favor of a Nationalist ministry. Poincare declares that he favors reaching a thorough agreement with the Allies on every outstanding point of difference, but the fear is felt that his uncompromising attitude migght, on the contrary, precipitate another European crisis. Should Poincare be chosen Premier, Lloyd George, at least, would be unable to complain of being asked to go to France to meet a Government o fnobodies. The British Premier is likely to find Poincare a far more difficult adversary than Millerand or even Clemenceau. Poincare's policy may be judged from the following views of the French situation made last week:

"During the last year we gained whole series of victories There were the victories of London, San Remo, Hythe, Boulogne and Spa, but the curious thing about our splendid success is that we do not exactly know whom we vanquished. Our great Spa victory cost us very dear. We were forced to advance hundreds of millions to Germany during six months, thus aggravating the position of our treasury and the crisis of our exchange The financial situation of the country is serious and if we do not rapidly come to its aid with ferocious

CHARTER PROVIDES FOR A TAX COLLECTOR

City Auditor Price Gives Law on The Subject

LAYMAN'S VIEWS

Legislative Could Abolish Office—It Will Not Meet Till January 1922—City Tax Collector a Charter Office

Commenting upon the action of the City Council Tuesday night as reported in the Gazette of yesterday, City Auditor Price asks these questions:

First—As no collector has been elected who is to collect the city tax bills for 1920 and prior thereto at this time.

Second—The proposition of combining the offices of city treasurer and city tax collector.

The city treasurer is a state office, the term of his office is for four (4) years as provided for in section 129 of the charter.

The city tax collector is a charter office. See Section 8 of city charter. So is the office of auditor, clerk of gas, corporation attorney, and etc. The concluding paragraph of Section 8 reads as follows:

Whenever a vacancy shall occur in any office under this charter, except members of the City Council, whether by removal from office, death, resignation, failure to qualify or otherwise, the City Council shall fill the vacancy at the next or any succeeding meeting in joint convention.

The last General Assemgly amended Section 136 of the Code of Virginia. See Acts 1920 paces 410-411. "How vacancies temporarily filled." In a county, city, town or district office." It is provided however that if there is no provision in the charter or ordinances of such city, vacancies are filled by the Judge of the Corporation or Circuit Court. As above recited there is a provision in our city charter The City Council fills the vacancies.

The charter provides for a collector of taxes and defines to some extent his duties and powers. The Constitution of Virginia creates the office of city treasurer.

How can the City Council abolish the office of city tax collector?

The legislature will not meet until January next 1922. An election must be held in November next for the full term of four years beginning January 1, 1922, for tax collector and other offices.

It is also stated the commission or manager form of municipal government will be submitted to the people before long.

Third—In discussing this matter what knowledge, if any, has the gentlemen of City Council that the City Council could state the commission to be paid the city treasurer, for collecting taxes, if the General Assembly has already or could dictate the commission, what would be the result, a less sum or increase in commission.

The added in this disjointed way it was only to call attention to the inconvenience caused by delays in tax collections.

As a layman he was commenting. Lawyers would perhaps view matters differently.

Issues Stop Order

McLean Cancels All Inaugural Plans

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Operation of the general inaugural committee, the citizens' body having charge of arrangements for the induction of President-elect Harding has definitely ceased, with the exception of the executive, finance and auditing subcommittees and the office of the secretary, Jess W. Smith.

Chairman Edward B. McLean issued a general stop-order last night He took occasion to assure contributors to the guarantee fund of $150,000 that all save a small amount spent would be returned to them and thanked the fellow workers and citizens generally for their co-operation.

The "farewell message" said in part:

"The inaugural organization, following the wishes of President-elect Harding, will immediately cease to function, with the exception of the executive, finance and auditing committees and the office of the secretary. These branches will have charge of winding up the affairs of the organization. They, too, will disband as soon as possible.

"The finance committee, when the business incidental to the preliminary work is finished, will return the funds, less the small amount spent, to the public-spirited citizens of Washington, to whom the committee is very grateful for their whole-souled support, shown in generous contributions of money, time and effort.

NAVAL COURT FOR AERONAUTS' STORY

Daniels Says Inquiry Will be Held Upon Their Return to New York

HEARING FOR FARRELL

Will Investigate Sale of Letters to Newspapers— Kloor Issues Statement—Hinton Expresses Regret

Washington, Jan. 13.—Secretary Daniels announced last night that a court of inquiry would be convened at the Rockaway (New York) Air Station upon the arrival there of Lieutenants Hinton, Farrell and Kloor to inquire into all the circumstances of the balloon flight which carried the three officers from Rockaway to the shores of Hudson Bay.

The court of inquiry, Mr. Daniels said will pay particular attention to the reported sale to newspapers and news syndicates of letters from the three officers.

Another subject of inquiry, the Secretary said, will be the physical clash yesterday at Mattice, Ontario, between Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton, growing out of the publication of letters written by the latter to his wife and published.

Mr. Daniels said that the court of inquiry had not as yet been ordered and he was not sure whether the order would be sent from his office or the entire matter left to the commander at Rockaway. Whatever course is pursued, the precept and powers of the court, he said, would be broad. The precept directing the court's activities will be drawn in the office of Thomas T. Craven, director of naval aviation.

The court in its investigation of the reported sale of the aeronaut's letters, Mr. Daniels said, probably will inquire into rumors that letters

STREETS OF ALEXANDRIA. The streets of Alexandria are nothing to boast of at the best. There is one pest-hole that is a blotch on the city's fair physiognomy that should be attended to at once. We refer to West Street in its approach to the High School. We have expended $60,000 in building a handsome structure of which the city is justly proud. But the condition of West Street between King and Cameron, which forms an approach to the school, is such that vehicles and automobiles find it almost impossible of travel. These bad mornings and afternoons numbers of our citizens find it expedient to carry their children to school. Their complaints as to the mud and rough antiquated pavement have reached our ears, and we trust the City Council will see to it that West Street is repaired and put in shape for the traffic that finds its use a necessity.

THRIFT WEEK IN VIRGINIA. The governor of New York has set aside the week beginning January 17th as Thrift Week. This is the 215th anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin whose writings under the nom-de-plume of "Poor Richard" did much to encourage thrift among his fellow-citizens. We believe that Virginia should enter into the movement inaugurated for the promotion of a National Thrift Week. The idea is to emphasize on each day of the week some special form of thrift. Monday is to be Bank Day; Tuesday to be Budget Day; Wednesday, Life Insurance Day; Thursday, to be Own Your Own Home Day; Friday, Make a Will Day; Saturday, Pay Your Bills Promptly Day; and Sunday, Share with Others Day. Budget Day should have especial significance to Virginians. The Virginia budget law has been universally conceded to be "one of the most constructive pieces of legislation ever enacted by a state legislature, and doing more to put the finances of the state on a sound business basis than any other law on the statute books." The first state budget prepared by Governor Davis carried direct appropriations amounting to $22,500,000, and a two-year work program involving an aggregate expenditure of nearly $34,000,000. The General Assembly added to the governor's budget less than half of one per cent, and the entire appropriation was accomplished without any increase in taxation, although making heavy additional appropriations for the public schools and other direct services to the state's citizens. We think, therefore, as stated, that it would be peculiarly fitting that Virginia should join the national movement.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA PLANS ALUMNI HONORS. A search is being made for the oldest living alumnus of the University of Virginia, for whom special honors are being designed in the Centennial Celebration to be held May 31st, June 1st, 2nd and 3d, 1921. The search so far reveals several living alumni whose graduation dates back as far as 1848, 1849, and the early fifties. The University ranks with any of the leading state universities of the country, and has a historic past that is unique. Many of the university's sons of an elderday played a prominent part in the Nation's development. It is not too much to say that the University of Virginia through its graduates, has always exercised an influence for the good of the state, second to none. It is to be hoped that citizens everywhere will lend unstinted effort to make the centennial celebration a brilliant success.

THE TARIFF IN THE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE. The Ways and Means Committee in Congress is holding almost daily hearings on revision of the tariff. The Tariff Information Surveys embody more than a thousand reports prepared for Congress by the U. S. Tariff Commission. Each survey, covering from one to a dozen commodities, represents the statistical study of a particular industry, as related to and affected by the tariff. When these surveys are assembled they will present a moving picture of American industry and a complete visualization of the progress of every line of business in the United States. There is hardly a doubt that they will aid materially in the enactment of an intelligent and comprehensive tariff.

INTERESTING MEETING OF RETAIL MERCHANTS BUREAU

Alexandria's next big city-wide sale and bargain event will be Wednesday February 16, 1921.

This was decided upon at the regular monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants' Bureau, which was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last evening. Following a report to the effect that the November Dollar Day was by far the biggest and best sale ever conducted in this city, the date for the next one was set as the third Wednesday in next month.

Whether or not Alexandria is to have a Fashion Show and along what lines this show should be conducted was the subject of a protracted debate in which every member present took an active part. The Style Show was passed by last autumn because of the fact that the question came up too late in the season and the committees were not given sufficient time to make the preparations.

A canvass of the merchants of the city will be taken at once and an opinion solicited from each of these and these opinions will govern the future action of the executive committee in relation to the proposed show.

The question of a weekly, get-together business luncheon for members of the Retail Merchants' Bureau and of the Chamber of Commerce was also the subject of considerable discussion and the matter was left to Charles R. Morrison to ascertain the attitude of the various members and report at the next regular meeting on February 9.

February 9 will be the scene of another entertainment under the auspices of the Bureau according to the action taken at the last meeting of the Board of Directors. The Bureau was granted an appropriation of $100 to cover the cost of this entertainment and the committee in charge of arrangements has already secured some excellent talent for the occasion.

Captain Evans, business manager of the Chamber reported that the signs advertising the city have been secured and that they would be put up as soon as the weather permits. He also reported considerable progress on the question of a ferry line between this city and Fox Point, directly opposite on the Maryland shore.

Several other matters of minor interest were taken up and discussed and the members adjourned to come together again on February 9, 1921.

U. S. SCIENTISTS FIND NEW GIANT BLACKBERRY

Washington, Jan. 13.—A new species of blackberry, nearly four times as large as the domestic garden variety, has been discovered in Colombia by American scientists, and is being experimented on by the Department of Agriculture with a view to distribution to farmers of this country.

The giant berry was discovered by Dr. Frank M. Chapman, of the American Museum of Natural History, in a remote forest region of the South American Republic. It was brought here by Wilson Popence, agricultural explorer of the Deparament of Agriculture, who named it the Colombian berry, as a compliment to the country of its origin.

SPORTS

The Dreadnaught Athletic Club basketball five maintained their clean record by completely outclassing the Washington Barracks team, last night in the Armory, score 74 to 17. The locals put up their best game of the season, showing wonderful teamwork in every department, their accuracy in shooting goals was an outstanding feature, and with close guarding by Roberts, Hayden, preventing the soldiers from tallying many close shots at the basket. In the last quarter, Captain Hayden, benched himself, Carl Dreifus, and Leon Beaton, and rushed his capable subs. Stan Dreifus, Earl Cornell, and Jack Tulloch into the affray, and these lads more than upheld their own against the visitors, Tulloch adding seven points to the locals count. Jimmy Alexander and Carl Dreifus lead in shooting goals, scoring twelve each, followed by Beaton with seven, and Al Roberts, the local stellar guard, with two markers.

Score: Dreadnaughts 74, Washington Barracks 17. Goals, Alexander 12, Dreifus 12, Beaton 7, Tulloch 3, Roberts 2. Goals from fouls, Beaton and Tulloch. Time of quarters, ten minutes. Referee Kemp Cockrell, timer, E. R. Allen, scorer, Midkiff.

The locals next game will be at Indian Head, Md., leaving from Prince street wharf, Friday afternoon 4.15, on the Navy Yard Tug, for a return game with the Naval Proving five, and no doubt will run into the "picked" five from the Indian Head Basketball League, the team the Dreadnaughts vanquished Tuesday, being one of the league clubs.

On Saturday night here at Armory Hall the U. S. Mayflower quint will oppose the big "D" lads, at 8.15 p. m. The visitors have a good club, as is known by all who watch the "sport page" of the papers, and should be a good drawing card in Alexandria.

The Destroyer A. C. basketball team will go to Fredericksburg Friday to play the strong five of that place. They will leave at 5.17. The locals will use the following players, Snellings, Owens, Cornell, Faulkner, Bayliss, Whitestone and Roadhouse.

DANISH COUNT AND WIFE ARRESTED IN SPOKANE

Spokane, Wash, Jan. 13.—Count and Countess Vigo Holstein Rathlou, of Denmark, the latter formerly the wife of Dr. Roy A. Miles Collins, killed in Portland in 1909, were arrested here yesterday by United States immigration authorities and are being held for possible deportation.

According to B. E. Gowen, United States Immigration Commissioner, the pair entered the United States, presumably through Canada, last September, after they had been refused admission in 1916.

He said the Countess Rathlou eloped with Rathlou from her husband in Portland in 1908, and that Dr. Collins' second wife, when placed on trial a year later for his murder, declared she had killed him because of his love for his former wife.

According to Mr. Gowen, the Count and the Countess left the United States in 1915, and on their return were refused admission.

Why?

Many persons wonder why they have to pay 40 or 50 cents, or more, for the beef they buy when live cattle are only 10 or 15 cents a pound.

In the first place, we average only about ½ pound of meat from the pound of steer for which we pay 10 or 15 cents. Only part of the other half consists of such by-products as hides, oleo oil, tallow, etc. — the remainder is waste. And the return from by-products just now is very small. Hides and fats as well as many other items are down to pre-war prices.

In the second place, there are not many pounds of the kind of meat for which you pay 40 or 50 cents, or more, in the entire animal. Sometimes the retailer has to sell a lot of the meat he buys for about what he pays for it, because you and your neighbors pass by certain cuts and insist upon the other choicer cuts, such as steaks, etc.

Necessarily, he must get enough for these choicer cuts to make up for what he loses on the less popular ones, such as soup meat, etc.

The difference between the final retail price of the finished meat product and the first cost of the live steer is less than it is for most farm products.

If the foregoing raises any question in the mind of the reader, we will endeavor to answer it, upon request.

RED TRANSPORT SUNK BY FRENCH

Paris, Jan. 13.—The French government yesterday received confirmation of the sinking recently of an armed bolshevik transport in the Back Sea by the French destroyer Sakalave. The destroyer was engaged in police duty when attacked by the bolshevik ship, the government advices say, and the French warship immediately opened fire. In a few minutes the bolshevik troops abandoned the transport, which later sank.

Another bolshevik ship accompanying the transport was silenced.

Grocery Thieves Ran Own Chain of Stores

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Business became so good here for a gang of grocery thieves, who stole on a wholesale scale from delivery trucks, that they had to open several retail stores to dispose of their plunder more readily, police declared yesterday, in announcing that they have accounted for thefts of meats, butter, tea and other groceries valued at $150,000, with the arrest of seven members of the gang.

Two of the men were seized yesterday when they were trying to steal a truck loaded with meats. Shortly afterward the police raided four markets and arrested five more men.

One of the gang told where a truck load of butter, stolen a week ago, could be found. It was abandoned, he said, because after it had been tasted it was found not to be up to their standard.

Jury Finds Wade Guilty In Nott Murder Trial

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 13.—Elwood B. Wade, 23, was convicted of murder in the first degree here late last night for the killing of George E. Nott, in Nott's home in this city on August 92, 1920. The jury had been out six hours.

Sentence will be pronounced at 10 o'clock today. The penalty in this State is hanging.

After Judge Hinman had ordered courtroom cleared, Wade stood up, stretched himself and reached for his hat and coat. Then, with Sheriff Fasanella, he left for the county jail.

Columbus City Hall Destroyed by Fire

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 13.—Columbus City Hall, one of the oldest public buildings in the city directly across the street from the State House, was destroyed by fire last night. Nearby business blocks, at first threatened by the flame, were saved, except for slight damage to roofs.

The blaze started on the third floor in a gymnasium, from an unknown cause. Children, playing on the same floor, escaped in gymnasium costume, and City Council, in session in the building, also took hasty adjournment and fled to the streets.

LEYGUES MINISTRY OVERTHROW IN FRANCE

economies there soon will be no other course but new taxation.

"We were told that all the treaty of Versailles clauses needed were sanctions. At the Spa conference sanctions were agreed upon. Unless Germany's disarmament were completed by the first of the year the catch would automatically be loosed and the machinery start moving. The new year arrived, but the spring didn't work. Despite the unanimous agreement of the Interallied Control Commission Germany has not disarmed. Despite a separate note we addressed to the German Empire as a New Year's greeting we remained with our arms folded while Germany laughed in our face."

Millerand not only called before him the presidents of the two chambers, as is customary, but tomorrow he intends to summon 25 or 30 members of the Senate and Chamber to discuss the situation and what is to be done. Millerand will outline fully the situation. He will describe his policy of conciliation and will endeavor to obtain acceptance of his reparations policy, at the same time warning the members that this or that policy threatens if a moderate policy is not followed. It remains to be seen whether Millerand is able to keep his control over the governing body of France. It was reported late this evening that Raoul Peret, president of the chamber, will first be called upon to endeavor to form a compromise Ministry.

Leygues pleaded in vain yesterday afternoon to the Chamber to be allowed to retain his Premiership, at least until after the Premiers' conference, but the Chamber listened to him in icy silence.

All day yesterday he had tried to negotiate with various groups which intended to attack him and it is understood that last night he believed his Government was safe, at least for another two weeks. Nevertheless he was faced yesterday by no less than five interpellations from members in every part of the House. Durand Bechet asked about interior finance, Maurice Raynaud of German disarmament, Lacotte on the policy towards England, Bokanowski on foreign finance and Deyris on general policies.

NAVAL COURT TO HEAR AERONAUTS' STORY

Mr. Daniels was asked if Lieutenant Farrell would have an opportunity to ask the court to investigate any charges he thought might have been made by brother officers detrimental to his character in connection with the exploit.

"If Lieutenant Farrell thinks that anything has been said injurious to his reputation as an officer he can present it to this court." Mr. Daniels replied. "If I find that this court has not the power to vindicate him in the event that he sustains his contentions a special court can be convened for that purpose."

The fight between Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton shortly after their arrival here yesterday afternoon was ascribed, in a statement issued before their departure, to overwrought minds induced "by their hardships and gruellingg struggles that had to be endured on the trip over the trail from Moose Factory"

The statement, signed by Lieutenant Kloor, was prepared, he said, at the direction of Hinton and Farrell, who had amended their differences.

"On several occasions during the trip," the statement said, "after a long and tiresome walk, one or two of us would become grouchy and at the slightest invitation would make a fuss. These quarrels were only on the spur of the moment and were just temporary disagreements. Almost as quickly as they would start they would end, leaving all hands, as usual, the best and strongest of friends.

"I also wish to state that as commander of the balloon I flew to Moose Factory, I had perfect liberty to select any of the officers at the station to accompany me. In picking Lieutenants Hinton and Farrell I selected them because they were two of my best friends and themselves good comrades.

"During the trip all of us have been ready to make sacrifices for one another without partiality. We have fought our battles as befits shipmates and in accordance with the traditions of the United States Navy. We have done our best to uphold our own dignity as well as that of the service.

"Such petty quarrels as may have occurred will not lessen our affection for one another. Yesterday, after the first real rest since we left Moose Factory, our differences patched up and our friendships renewed, we cannot emphasize too strongly that there is not and has not been any misunderstanding in our party other than of a passing nature"

Hinton admitted he had written the letter that caused the quarrel, but declared he had not intended it for publication, and was sorry. Belief in this statement was expressed by Farrell, who alluded to Hinton as "my old pal." They indicated then that the incident was closed in so far as they were concerned.

The train bearing the officers probably reached Toronto between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon. They intend leaving Toronto for New York at 6 p. m.

Lieutenant Hinton still was suffering from swollen feet as a result of the long trip from Moose Factory on snowshoes. The others apparently are in good shape and give no outward appearance of fatigue. They seemed greatly refreshed after their rest.

FALL FROM CATHEDRAL TOWER KILLS COUNTESS

London, Jan. 13.—A woman visitor at Westminster Cathedral yesterday fell 300 feet from the campanile (St Edward's Tower) and was killed. She later was identified as the Portuguese Countess Da Ribiera Grand, who had been missing from a Chelsea nursing home, where Count Grand also resides. He was too ill to be seen today.

The top of the campanile is protected by a stonewall four feet high and a metal guard rail. This is the first accident since the tower was erected. In the summer time some 200 people ascend it daily.

The body was found on a small balcony below. Every bone was broken.

Back to Prison for Life After Pardon to Wed

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 13.—John Bales pardoned from a life sentence in prison two years ago as a reward for the persistent efforts of his sweetheart to obtain his release, must spend the remainder of his days in jail.

He was pardoned conditionally on his promise to marry and on the girl's promise to keep him on path of good behavior.

During the recent crime wave which swept over this section of the State Bales was caught with a revolver concealed on his person. It was considered that he had broken the terms of his parole.

According to report, Bales and his bride have led a happy domestic life since his pardon.

She accompanied him to the penitentiary door, weeping bitterly.

DETECTIVES KILL SAILOR

Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 13.—Railroad detectives guarding a silk train in the Pennsylvania yards here, yesterday shot and killed William J. Bock, a seaman.

Joseph Gibson and August Lemorcaux, seamen, charged with attempted larceny, asserted the three were going to Philadelphia to ship out on a steamer. Terence McGovern and Joseph H. Smith, railroad detectives, were later arrested charged with shooting Bock, and were released under $10,000 bonds.

BRITISH TO SUPPRESS FACTS ON CORK FIRE

London, Jan. 13.—The long awaited report of Major General Strickland on the Cork conflagration will never be published in its entirety as submitted to the government by the General, it is learned in an authoritative quarter. The report has not had final Cabinet consideration, and, consequently, it is uncertain when the abbreviated findings will be published.

The official explanation for censuring the document is that pledges were given to certain witnesses before the military commisson that their identity would be closely guarded. It is asserted that the testimony of some of these witnesses was of such a nature that it could not be published without revealing the identity of the authors, so none of their statements regarding the fire and its causes, and the ensuing pillaging, will be included in the public version.

CUTS HIS THROAT WITH KNIFE

Miami, Fla., Jan. 13.—Marvin F. Scaife, of Pittsburgh, Pa., committed suicide here yesterday by cutting his throat with a knife. He died on his way to a hospital.

Scaife came to Miami December 1. A letter found on his person told of hallucinations that he was being pursued by an unnamed enemy in North Carolina.

GIRL FINDS FOUR HACKED WITH AX

De Ridder, La., Jan. 13.—John Orlander, Italian grocer, who, with his wife and two children, was hacked with an axe by an unidentified assailant sometime last night, died at a sanitarium in Lake Charles today. His wife was operated on in an effort to save her life, but she was reported in a critical condition late today.

Besides Orlander, his wife, their daughter Josephine, age 6, and son Paul, 8 years old, are victims of the madman's assault with an ax.

The tragedy was discovered early yesterday by a child who sought entrance to the little grocery store of which Orlander was proprietor. Finding the door closed, the little girl went to the side entrance leading to the sleeping quarters of the family. Shrieking for help, she aroused the neighors.

Lying across their beds, clad in their nightclothes, the man, the woman and children were found. Walls bedclothing and floor were spattered with blood, while a broken latch on the window showed how an entrance had been gained.

U. S. Troops on Rhine Are Reduced to 8000

Washington, Jan. 13.—Reduction of the American forces of occupation in Germany from 15,000 to 8000 has been ordered by the War Department.

Secretary Baker wrote yesterday to Representative Byrnes, Democrat South Carolina, that the reduction already was under way. He added that the ultimate withdrawal of the entire force was a matter "for future consideration."

The cost of operating the force of 15,000 was approximately $75,000 a day. Mr. Baker said, but under the terms of the armistice Germany must pay the maintenance costs.

BAPTIST CHURCHES FAVOR GENERAL MISSIONARY WORK

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 13.—Monthly and weekly offerings by the 25,000 local Baptist Churches of the South to the general mission educational and benevolent work were favored in resolutions adopted yesterday by the home mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention as a cure for the problem presented in the financing of the general work of the convention.

Such a policy would relieve the board of the necessity of borrowing heavily at the banks until such time as the churches make their offerings in special campaigns, it was declared.

Dr. V. I. Masters, superintendent of publicity of the board, tendered his resignation in order to accept the editorship of the Western Recorder, a Baptist publication of Louisville, Ky. His successor has not yet been elected.

SCHOOL FOR BLIND TARGET OF PENNSYLVANIA FIREBUG

Pittsburgh, Jan. 13.—Efforts of the arson ring to burn the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind, which has more than 100 sight less students, were revealed yesterday. Officials of the school admitted that a fire was discovered in the building yesterday morning, but would give no further information. The police, however, admitted an incendiary had been at work, using waste paper and waste in igniting the fire.

The fire was discovered by one of the blind girls, who detected a strong odor of smoke while she was passing through a corridor. She summoned an instructor, who, with the aid of several pupils, extinguished the fire, which had been started in one of the rooms in a wing of the building.

The building chapel of the First Presbyterian Church, of Wilkinsburg, was burned early yesterday morning, entailing a loss of $7,000. The police declare the building was set a fire.

RICHMOND RECTOR HONORED BY EPISCOPAL MISSIONERS

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 13.—Official notice was made here yesterday of the selection of Rev. W. Russell Bowie, rector of St. Paul's Church, of Richmond, Va., as missioner in charge of the Interparochial Preaching Mission to be held by twenty-eight Episcopal Churches of this city and section at Christ Church, in this city starting next Sunday evening.

INSURANCE COMPANIES ALSO FEEL DEPRESSION

New York, Jan. 13.—A canvass of the insurance companies shows that they too are feeling the current depression. The fire insurance companies are not having many policies cancelled, but have an unusual number of losses to face. Life insurance companies have been receiving more and more cancellations ever since the credit situation became strained and they were compelled to reduce the loans which ordinarily they make against policies. It is reported that the cancellations of both life and fire policies during December were double those of November, and practically established a record.

Directors of the recently organized Allied Chemical Corporation will met in March for dividend action. There is reason to believe that the initial payment will be 1 1-2 per cent with an announcement that the annual rate will be 6 per cent.

HOLDS INSURANCE CONCERNS

Court Permanently Enjoins 160 From Leaving State of Mississippi

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 13.—A temporary injuction granted ten days ago on petition of State Revenue Agent Stokes V. Robertson, to prevent 160 fire insurance companies from withdrawing from the State of Mississippi was yesterday made permanent by Chancellor V. J. Stricker in Hinds county chancery court.

The Chancellor overruled the contention of the insurance companies that the revenue agents without authority to resort to inunction and that his powers are purely statutory.

The companies opposing the injunction are defendants in the billion antitrust suit, filed by the State revenue agent, answer to which is now pending.

New Baby Coaches Have Bells So Tots Can Ring For Nurse

Chicago, Jan. 13.—There has been a marked falling off in the demand for baby carriages, say baby carriage manufacturers, who assembled for a national convention here yesterday to lay plans for bettering their market and to dictate 1922 styles in perambulators.

A glance over the models convinces any one that life in the future is going to be a veritable paradise for infants. Babies of the next few years are going to ride in electrically equipped cabs.

"Pneumatic tires already are old stuff," E. S. Munson, coachmaker to the heirs apparent of Nebraska, retorted in a blase manner. "Lots of the corn belt babies already are riding in them. We are now going in for electrical appliances."

The very latest is a cab equipped with a little knob which the occupant can touch when he or she wants the hood lowered or raised and another manufacturer stated that this cab also has a push button that the passenger can use to ring a bell when service is required. Those interested in the price of cabs may rejoice to learn they will be from 15 per cent to 20 per cent lower than last year, it was announced.

Zeligouski's Army Is Plundering Vilna, Say Reports in Riga

Riga, Jan. 13.—Rumors in circulation here report the evacuation of war supplies, artillery and archives from Vilna, the Lithuanian capital, which is now held by insurgent troops headed by Gen. Zeligouski, the former Polish commander. Gen. Zeligouski's army is said to be so near a state of collapse that its members, it is reported, are disobeying their officers and plundering and robbing the population of the city.
